

Spring, 2011

C-SCDC's Most Wanted "Captured"

On May the 18th, C-SCDC Executive Director, Mark Whitmer, and Cecil M. Greene, Jr., Vice-Chairperson of the Board of Directors, were captured for the crimes they had committed (too many to mention) and were sentenced to one hour of hard labor collecting bail money to benefit the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA).

???

raised $762.00.

The Annual Lock-Up was held at the Outback Steakhouse on May the 18th with hundreds of Fort Smith Community Leaders participating. This year the Lock-Up raised $68,288 to

?

-DLOELUGODUNWPHUHHUNDWPHU

DGWD

2011 Annual ACAA Conference

The 2011 Annual ACAA Conference was held May 11th-13th in Hot Springs at the Arlington Hotel and Spa. The theme of the conference was packed with ideas, tools, networking opportunities, and timely information to help Arkansas community ac-

C-SCDC Board member Cecil M. Greene, Jr. received a Supporter Action Award for outstanding support of community action.

Weatherization Director, Debbie Biggs, was nominated for a CAPPY Award in the category of best performance in a leading role. She received a certificate of nomination but did not take home the CAPPY, but to us she is still a WINNER!!

Other C-SCDC attendees included Michele Trawick, Neny Perry and Sally Fisher.

ACAAA President, Al West, presents Cecil M. Greene, Jr. with a Supporter Action Award

ACAAA President, Al West, presents Debbie Biggs with a certificate of nomination